The Trinity by Andrei Rublev

Trinity Sunday

June 12, 2022

The worship at Broadway Baptist Church has been consciously crafted to reflect and recapture historic and classical worship. Worship is an act of offering and praise to God. Our priority is to worship God according to the model found in Isaiah 6:1-8. Central to our worship is the proclamation of the Word of God through scripture, sermon, and music. We encourage all worshippers to engage in the worship of God; after all, worship is also a verb.

Please silence your cell phones during this time of worship.

The Greeting

Rev. Kevin Gardner-Sinclair

Minister: The peace and love of Christ be with you. And also with you.

The Prayer of Illumination

Rev. Robert Gammon

We gather today to worship the mystery of the Trinity, one God in three persons. On this Trinity Sunday, we acknowledge that we neither see nor understand all there is to know about God. We find joy and hope in the mystery of the One who is beyond comprehension. May the love of God, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit guide us into all truth even now.

The Dedication of Andrew Dixon

Rev. Susan Reed

Pastor: We are here today to present to the church and to consecrate Andrew to God. Who brings this child for this holy purpose?

Parents: We, the parents, do.

Pastor: What do we affirm about Andrew?

People: We affirm that he is a child of God by creation; that he is loved and will be included in the experiences of this congregation.

Pastor: As Andrew grows into childhood, what will we tell him about his heritage?

People: We will tell him about God, about Abraham and Sarah, about Moses, about Ruth, and about the prophets. We will tell him about Jesus, the woman at the well, the apostles, and the worship and mission of the church.

Pastor: What will we hope for him?

People: We will look to the day when he will declare faith in Jesus Christ, confirm the heritage we will pass along, and become a servant within and beyond the walls of our church.

Pastor: Do you, as the parents of Andrew, assume primary responsibility for keeping him in touch with such hopes and expectations?

Parents: Yes, we accept this responsibility.

Pastor: And so do you, the congregation, pledge to work toward creating a nurturing Christian environment for Andrew?

People: Yes, we do, for he is a part of this family of faith at Broadway Baptist Church.

Pastor: Thanks be to God.

ALL: Amen.

Blessing of Students and Teachers: August 7

Join us for worship as we bless our students and teachers as they begin a new school year!

Back to School Sunday: August 7

Children 2-years-old or nearing 2 and ready to sit for a short lesson will “promote” to the 2s with Teri and Jeanne. This movement is fluid and children will be “promoted” throughout the year when they are ready. Children beginning PreK move to the Barmans’ class and children starting 1st Grade move to Ann’s & Ben’s class! Donut holes for all! Family lunch and bounce house after worship.

Sanctuary Flowers To Share

On many Sundays, sponsors of the sanctuary flowers donate the arrangements back to the church. The flower committee breaks down the arrangements into several smaller ones and offers them to anyone - church member or not - who would like to take them and share with others. The small arrangements are on the table in the office lobby by 10 a.m. Monday mornings. Please stop by, take some flowers and spread some cheer! Flowers will be available on:

Academy of the Arts at Broadway

On May 18, the church voted unanimously to begin the Academy of the Arts this August. We are excited about the endless possibilities that exist and look forward to partnering with the members of Broadway in this mission/educational endeavor. Please reach out to Robert, or members of the music committee, to ask how you can get involved.
