Eighth Sunday After Pentecost

July 31, 2022

The worship at Broadway Baptist Church has been consciously crafted to reflect and recapture historic and classical worship. Worship is an act of offering and praise to God. Our priority is to worship God according to the model found in Isaiah 6:1-8. Central to our worship is the proclamation of the Word of God through scripture, sermon, and music. We encourage all worshippers to engage in the worship of God; after all, worship is also a verb.

Please silence your cell phones during this time of worship.

The Chiming

The Greeting

The Call to Worship

Debra Reh and Congregation

Leader: The timber has been cut, the mortar mixed, and the stones formed.

People: However, we, the stonecutters, must remain faithful to the carpenter's architectural plans.

Leader: Jesus Christ has laid the foundation and allows us to join in the construction process of redemption and reconciliation.

People: May we seek to replace hatred with understanding, envy with loyalty, despair with hope, and futility with purpose.

Leader: The building codes have been approved. Stonecutters measured by the plum line. Set before them, the cornerstone of salvation has drawn the perfect blueprint for all builders to follow.

People: As we seek to build homes and change lives, may these communities develop hope and grace for all people. Amen.

Called as Partners in Christ's Service

Called as partners in Christ's service, called to ministries of grace, we respond with deep commitment fresh new lines of faith to trace. May we learn the art of sharing, side by side and friend with friend, equal partners in our caring to fulfill God's chosen end.

Christ's example, Christ's inspiring, Christ's clear call to work and worth, let us follow, never faltering, reconciling folk on earth. Men and women, richer, poorer, all God's people, young and old, blending human skills together gracious gifts from God unfold.

Thus new patterns for Christ's mission, in a small or global sense, help us bear each other's burdens, breaking down each wall or fence. Words of comfort, words of vision, words of challenge, said with care, bring new pow'r and strength for action, make us colleagues, free and fair.
