All Saints Sunday

November 6, 2022

All Saints Sunday is a time to remember those who have died in the faith of Christ. Today, we will observe All Saints Sunday by reading scripture, singing songs, lighting candles and thanking God for the saints who have gone before us. More specifically, we will read aloud the names of those church members who have died since the previous All Saints service. And, ever mindful that many of you have experienced grief outside the membership here at Broadway, there will be a time for others to be remembered as well.

The Meditation

When you remember me, it means you have carried something of who I am with you, that I have left some mark of who I am on who you are. It means that you can summon me back to your mind even though countless years and miles may stand between us. It means that if we meet again, you will know me. It means that even after I die, you can still see my face and hear my voice and speak to me in your heart.
~ Frederick Buechner

The Call To Worship

Rev. Robert Gammon

Minister: God of history, we praise you for the parade of your faithful servants and witnesses throughout the ages.

Congregation: Like Isaiah and all the prophets, make us joyful in giving and strong in service.

Minister: Like Mary, the mother of our Lord, Peter and Paul, Martha, Mary Magdalene, and all who followed Jesus.

Congregation: Like all saints and martyrs in every time and in every land, who lived in love, willing to die with Christ, make us joyful in giving and strong in service.

Minister: Like those in our families who brought us to Christ and taught us faith.

Congregation: Like the ministers, teachers, and friends in faith who nurtured us in discipleship, make us joyful in giving and strong in service.

All: Inspire us by your spirit, as we join the ranks of your faithful people, to follow our Lord through life, as we witness to your righteous truth and generous love.

Amen.

~ based on Hebrews 11

The Hymn Of Remembrance And Commemoration

In Unity We Lift Our Song (EIN FESTE BURG)

In unity we lift our song of grateful adoration, for brothers brave and sisters strong, what cause for celebration. For those whose faithfulness has kept us through distress, who've shared with us our plight, who held us in the night, the blessed congregation.

For stories told and told again to every generation, to give us strength in times of pain, to give us consolation. Our spirits to revive to keep our dreams alive, when we are far from home and evil seasons come; how firm is our foundation.

For sacred scriptures handed down, a blessed trust and treasure. Which gives us hope when hope is gone and makes us weep with pleasure. And when our eyes grow blind and death is close behind, we shall recite them still whose words our hearts can fill with hope beyond all measure.

The Dedication Of The Yahrzeit Candles

Rev. Susan Reed

Broadway presents Yahrzeit candles to church members at the one-year anniversary of the death of a spouse, parent, sibling or child. It is a tradition adopted from the Jewish faith as a reminder of God's presence during grief.
